FAB CLUB

finds out what's cooking!

THE newest look for clothes will be the Two-Faced look... clothes that look like one outfit, but which un-zip or detach to make a second. Capes are also in, and can be worn with everything. Jackets are long, and slightly waisted. Trouser suits are still a wow, and legs will still be hidden in coloured stockings. Big wide knicker ties are a must—the bigger the better, and try and get a cap to match. The new 'in' colours are brown, gold, orange, and emerald.

WHAT'S doing? What's the latest craze? FAB Club has been trying to find out! Trouble is, things change so quickly Agents have sent FAB Agents have done their best to send up-to-the-minute reports in... so here goes!

THE IN LOOK

The Natural Look is definitely IN for the moment! To tone up your complexion every morning after washing, so you can wake up the pores and rid the skin. This close-up face with plenty of skin. Lips are bare and working. The treatment is good for clay, bright eyes, hair? Please, you're just in a wear it long and straight or short and tomboyish.

if it isn't raining...

... then the thing to do just now is give—or go to—an out-of-door party! Throw a barbecue in the garden, or set off with your friends for a picnic-party. The more people who go, the merrier!

Here are some ideas for picnic party snacks...

- ★ Lots of cold sausages (and don't forget a tube of mustard).
- ★ Salad—tomatoes, celery, lettuce, spring onions, radishes—kept crisp and fresh in polythene boxes or bags.
- ★ Cubes of cheddar cheese and long crisp French loaves.
- ★ Hard-boiled eggs, small pork pies, sausage rolls.
- ★ Lots of fresh fruit, but don't forget not to leave any litter behind!

CONTINUING WITH FAB CLUB!

Tomorrow's group... THE BEE GEES

A group which started as a trio in Manchester, consisting of twins Robin and Maurice Gibb, plus their brother Barry. They emigrated to Australia, and after only a short time out there, had a number one hit. The Bee Gees then returned to Britain early this year, joined by Australian drummer Colin Petersen. Their average age is eighteen—and like the Beatles they write, arrange and play their own music.

Wearing a watch on your WRIST? Well, it seems that's right out at the moment! Watches have been getting bigger and bigger, and now some girls are wearing them round their arms—or just above the knee for a garter look! Like the idea?

STAR QUERY

I WOULD like to ask Simon Dee what makes him feel that a certain record is going to be a hit, and what sort of music does he personally like. Does he like many records apart from the Top Ten?

Gillian Davies,
Stockport.

SIMON replies

“Well, Gillian, I’ll answer the last question first! There are many records that I don’t personally like, but when an artist makes a commercial record, I play it because the record-buying public will like it. I really like all sorts of music, and when I’m at home, I play records to suit the mood I’m in. I am a great fan of Count Basie, Manfred Mann, and I think that Kiki Dee is one of the greatest vocalists on the scene—she’s no relation, by the way! I also like ballads very much, too. I think the thing that really makes a record is the backing sound, although personally, I listen to the lyrics. I must admit, though, that the pop scene here at the moment is very advanced”

MONKEY BUSINESS!

ALL LADY PENELOPE readers like the Monkeys . . . and here are three who like ordinary monkeys, too! That’s Sharon Garside in the top picture—she lives at Stockport. The girl getting the monkey hug is Anne Clements, of Whitehaven; and the third monkey fan is Janet Clarke, of Shepway.

YOUR POST, M’!

WRITE TO: LADY PENELOPE,
c/o CENTURY 21 PUBLISHING
LTD., 3rd FLOOR, 167 FLEET STREET, LONDON, E.C.4. For a postal reply, please enclose a ready stamped, self addressed envelope.

TRAFFIC STOP!

I would like to tell you what happened the other day, when I was out shopping. While I was trying to cross the road, which was full of traffic, a policeman came riding along. He saw me trying to cross, so he dismounted and walked into the middle of the road, and stopped the traffic so that I could cross in safety. You can imagine my surprise—fancy him doing it for me!

Georgina Wheeler,
Bournemouth.

TOP DOG!

Our dog Tessy is older than I am eleven and my brother’s ten, but Tessy is twelve. Apparently when we were babies and Tessy was a puppy, she used to run indoors and bark, and get Mummy to come out into the garden if we were crying. She is getting old now, but we wouldn’t swap her for anything in the world.

Christine Jackson,
Macclesfield.

AWKWARD AGE!

I am at an awkward age, when I can’t wear children’s clothes, and I can’t wear grown-up clothes—those which I do find are too expensive. So to overcome this problem, I design my own clothes, and try the ideas out on my Sindy doll. Then, if they work, Mummy makes me a proper one in the same style. This way, my wardrobe is always full of nice dresses.

Angela Gunby,
London.

P’s and Q’s

I think Thunderbirds is FAB, but why doesn’t everyone say please? Orders are given freely, but with no “Please, would you do this or that?” My baby sister says she doesn’t have to say it when no-one in Thunderbirds does.

Dena Groves,
Little Hereford.

I’m sure that the Tracys say please and thank you when they’re at home on Tracy Island. But remember, when International Rescue is operating, every second counts. When the Tracys are trying to save someone’s life, and there is no time to spare, they have to give orders as quickly as possible. To keep saying please and thank you would waste valuable time, and could cause confusion. This is the reason why these words are left out. Dena, and not because of bad manners.

BAD APPLE!

I would like to know why everyone in my class—as well as my brother who is sixteen, likes Davy Jones best. I am the only one who likes Mike Nesmith (Whoop), and I am beginning to feel like a bad apple! I know Mike is married, but I just love his American accent, and his hat. I suppose you will get a lot of protest letters about this, but I still, and always will, like Mike!

Catherine Maguire,
Bolton.

Who’s your favourite Monkey?

PRIZE WINNERS

HERE are the winners of the “Riddle-Me-See” competition in issue 64. They each win a super Paula Lee dress. They are: Deborah, Spence, Bath; Joyce Turner, Fife; Karen Tonks, Hefnesford; Janice Orman, Salisbury; Carolyn Bench, Leamington Spa; Susan Baird, Beccleshead; Carol Stephens, Stourbridge; Susan Baker, Stourbridge; Pamela Wadley, Redditch; Kathleen Owen, Snettisham.

I’VE had lots of letters from you over the past few weeks . . . thank you for writing! It’s taking me quite a time to answer all the ones with stamped, addressed envelopes, and I apologise for any delay. Parker’s helping, by licking the envelopes, and posting them off for me! I have another selection of interesting letters to print this week. Each one wins ten shillings! When you write, don’t forget to enclose a list of your six favourite stories and features, and tell me your favourite television programme at the moment.

Penelope C.W.

POP PAINTING

We have a fab teacher at school, who really has some good ideas. One day she played ‘Penny Lane’ by the Beatles, and then asked us to paint our ideas of Penny Lane. This was the best art lesson I have ever had.

Sally Hill,
Woodbridge, Suffolk.
